

TEST IN COACH DURING ACI NATIONAL CONFERENCE

BPI Test Center Pure Energy Coach, LLC, has agreed to schedule BPI exams in COACH, their mobile training and testing lab, at the upcoming ACI conference in Detroit.

A sponsor of the conference, Pure Energy and Therma-View Infrared and Energy Consultants are offering five training sessions in COACH during the April 29-May 1 National Home Performance Conference.

In addition, BPI Proctor A. Tamasin Sterner, who is Chief Coach and President of Pure Energy, will offer exams for three certificate designations:

- Building Analyst Professional
- Envelope Professional
- Heating Professional

If you're attending the conference, check out the schedule on ACI's site, affordablecomfort.org to see the COACH trainings.

And to optimize your participation, schedule your test now. Contact Tamasin for an appointment: tsterner@PureEnergyCoach.com.
